Joe Trepiccione

graduated from Paier College of Art / The Whitney School of Art, New Haven, Ct., where he studied the classic arts and specialized in the field of children's book illustration.

Joe lives and works in Charlestown, MA, and his studio, Trepiccione Design, Inc., produces graphic design, illustration, and concepts for special events.

He is a founding member of the Artists' Group of Charlestown, Inc. and the StoveFactory Gallery and Studios; and also an active member of the Provincetown Art Association and Museum. His fine artwork has been shown throughout New England.

His favored mediums are drawing with pen/ink, watercolors, and oils and his primary subjects, nature and architecture.

This selection of work, executed in an impressionistic oil painting style, depicts classic subject matter with a bold abstract composition.
